COMPOSER NAME

Name: Date:

COMPOSER BIRTH YEAR:

COUNTRY BORN:

You are a historical biographer, and you have been tasked with writing the newest illustrated biography of the composer of your choosing. Listen to the episode and take notes with the listening guide below. When you finish listening to the episode, please write a one-page biography including the details from your notes. Most importantly, include your takeaway from learning about the composer!

| u tinish listening to the episode, please write a one-page biography including the details trom your notesost importantly, include your takeaway from learning about the composer! |                                                                  |  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | What was their family like?                                      |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | What made them interested in music?                              |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | Who supported them and helped them achieve their goals?          |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | Did they play any instruments?                                   |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | What were their passions?                                        |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | What makes the composer so unique?                               |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                        | Why do you think people over hundreds of years love their music? |  |

TITLE:

Draw your impression of the composer here

A biography by:

